

A photograph of a Double-crested Cormorant swimming in blue water. The bird is shown from the side, facing right. It has a long, yellow beak and a blue eye. Its feathers are dark brown and appear wet. The water is rippled with small waves. The text "Double-crested Cormorant" is overlaid on the left side of the image in a white, sans-serif font.

Double-crested Cormorant

Copyright © 2012 by John B. Ennis